FIRST RACE FOR CUP DECLARED OFF

Neither Yacht Within the Time Limit But Shamrock Slightly in the Lead at the Finish.

HIGHLAND, 4:50 P. M.—The time limit of 5½ hours expired at 4:45. At that time both boats were three miles east of the Highlands and the same distance from the finish line at Sandy Hook Lightship and the Shamrock was ahead. At the time the race was called off, a person could toss a biscuit from the Shamrock to the Columbia. At 4:47 both boats took in their jib top sails and signalled for tugs.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The first race of the series for the America's Cup between Shamrock and Columbia proved one of the most remarkable ever witnessed, for the Shamrock, despite her small crew, the greatest of all yachts, which braces unbroken, vaged in spite of a gulf or two, and in turn both boats enjoyed the benefit and suffered a change in position.

Excursion boats, of which there were hundreds, interested in a measure with the progress of the racers, and in this respect Columbia suffered most. The official start was made as follows:

Shamrock, 11:55 A.M.

Columbia, 11:56 A.M.

COLUMBIA POOR START.

Shamrock gained a hundred yards at the start, and before her had gone half the first mile, Columbia had lost, and did not set up a single, particularly her balloon, and she disheartened her followers by her silence work.

Suddenly, however, with a change of sail, and a puff of breeze, the American cup defender took on new life, and within a few minutes had recovered all the ground she had lost, and while two miles to the mark the Shamrock was pushing up her lost ground, being not more than one-third of a mile astern. They rounded the mark as follows:

COLUMBIA 1:28:5.

The enthusiasm was wild.

On the beat back there was a succession of small tacks. Columbia making move for move with Shamrock, until about 2:15, when the Shamrock was moving off astern. Columbia's tacking were moved rapidly on her Shamrock, and since she has gained rapidly on her Shamrock.

BIG LEAD FOR OUR BOAT.

HIGHLANDS—12:15 p. m.—The Columbia was nearly a quarter of a mile ahead of Shamrock at 12:32. The boats at that time had sailed about half the course.

LOOKS FOR SHAMROCK.

LONG BRANCH—12:32 p. m.—The Columbia has a commanding lead and is slowly increasing it. Wind freshening off shore.

NEARING THE TURN.

MACKAY-BENNETT CABIN BOAT—12:57 p. m.—The boats are nearing the turning mark. Columbia is ten lengths ahead.

COLUMBIA'S BIG LEAD.

ASBURY PARK—1:29—Columbia is leading by a big margin. She is now heading for the starboard beat lead is constituting a real challenge.

STILL TO THE FRONT.

ASBURY PARK—1:35 p. m.—The Associated Press boat is flying a signal indicating that the Columbia is still in the lead. Fully fifty vessels have come to the stake boat.

TWO SECONDS APART.

HIGHLANDS OF NAVESINK—1:38 p. m.—The Columbia turned the stake at 1:33. P. M. The Shamrock turned the stake at 1:40 P. M.

COLUMBIA STELL GAINS.

ASBURY PARK—1:52 p. m.—The Columbia seems to be standing much better than the Shamrock, but both boats are doing well. Columbia has apparently gained half a minute since the stake boat was rounded.

BULLETTINS OF RICE.

HIGHLANDS—11:22 a. m.—At 11:18 the starting gun fired. Shamrock apparently crossed the line at 11:19:30; Columbia at 11:19:35. Course, four miles to seaward, up down Jersey shore. At 11:22 Shamrock led Columbia by about 200 feet.

AWARD IS A COMPROMISE.

Text of the Decision Given

By the Venezuelan Arbitrators.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—By the direction of the Anglo-Venezuelan Arbitration Commission some of Great Britain's claims as to the interior and on the coast are dismissed, and the frontier will start at the Walini river.

The award was unanimous. It is considered in the nature of a compromise rather than as favoring Venezuela. It was read at 12:30 p. m. The decision, which was read by Mr. P. Denslow, the umpire, was read over the deliberations of the tribunal, as follows:

TEXT OF THE DECISION.

"The undersigned, by these presents, give an open and decided determination, and an express judgment concerning the questions that have been submitted to us by said arbitration; and in conformity with such arbitration we decide, declare and pronounce definitely that the line of the frontier of the colony of British Guiana and the United States of Venezuela is as follows:

"Starting on the coast at Point Playa, the frontier shall follow a straight line to the confluence of the Barima and the Maroni, thence along the thalweg of the Maroni to the source of the Mount Roraima; thence to the source of the Colyga. From this point the frontier shall follow the thalweg of the Colyga to its confluence with the Taku, thence to the northern bank of which it shall follow in a westerly direction to the confluence of the Cuuyuni and the Yanumani, thence along the thalweg of the Yanumani to its western point of confluence with the source of the Mount Roraima; thence to the source of the Colyga. From this point the frontier shall follow the thalweg of the Colyga to its confluence with the Taku, thence to the northern bank of which it shall follow a straight line to the western point of the highest ridge of the Corinco mountains, thence to the source of the Corinco, whence it will follow the course of the river."

"Starting on the coast at Point Playa, the frontier shall follow a straight line to the confluence of the Barima and the Maroni, thence following the thalweg of the Maroni, whence it will follow the course of the Corinco, to the source of the Corinco, whence it will follow the course of the river."

SALOON WRECKED BY DYNAMITE

Borge & Cahill's Place at Niles Is Destroyed.

Inmates Have a Very Narrow Escape From Being Blown Up.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The magnificent sword awarded by act of Congress to the nation's hero was bestowed upon Admiral Dewey today in the presence of the President, members of the cabinet, the general officers and the highest officers of the army and navy and a vast crowd of the plain people. In contrast with all of the ceremonies that have taken place since Admiral Dewey reached the shores of his native land, today's function is one of the most simple and quiet. The administration is executing the will of the whole American people, and locality and community disappeared.

A HISTORIC SPOT.

The scene of the presentation was most appropriately located under the shadow of the great Capitol of the nation—a spot with memories of other statesmen.

The escort which marched in line with the Admiral was made entirely of soldiers and sailors. There was nothing in the general arrangements as the immense hall of the capitol, except through the application of the sword, to indicate that this occasion was anything less than a presidential inauguration.

From the flag-decorated stand, the crowd below presented the picture of an immense field of faces turned up toward the shining white pile of the Capitol. So far as the eye could see, the grand stand stretching between the buttresses of the east portion.

A WONDEROUS PICTURE.

Here it was that the most brilliant coloring was laid on the great living picture as the gold and blue of military uniforms and the brighter garb of the diplomatic corps drifted by.

When came the solid mass of the naval officials. There were a few scattering oars, but no decided demonstration until Dewey appeared.

A IMPRESSIVE SCENE.

It was before this vast assemblage, amid a profound hush, that Admiral Dewey received from the hands of the president the sword he had applied for.

GALLILDEE, 2:37 p. m.—Both yachts are standing on starboard, wind about north and light. Yachts are at this time making slow progress. Wind seems puffy off shore.

GALLILDEE—2:38 p. m.—The Columbia now stands on port tack. Columbia also on port tack, but is impossible to say how much. They don't appear to be very far apart.

BOTH BOATS JOCKEYING.

2:39 P. M.—The Columbia now leads, but it is impossible to say how much. They don't appear to be very far apart.

GALLILDEE—2:40 P. M.—Columbia is pulling away from Shamrock. Both are still on port tack. Wind freshening from the northeast.

SHAMROCK FORGES AHEAD.

HIGHLANDS—2:41 P. M.—The wind has decreased now about five miles an hour. Shamrock appears to have overtaken and passed Columbia. Both yachts have gone about on starboard tack. Very hazy off toward boats.

CHALLENGER IN THE LEAD.

2:42 P. M.—Shamrock seems to have a lead over Columbia as seen when they went about on port tack.

COLUMBIA IN FRONT.

2:43 P. M.—The Columbia now leads, but it is impossible to say how much. They don't appear to be very far apart.

GALLILDEE—2:47 P. M.—Shamrock is pulling away from Columbia. Both are still on port tack. Wind freshening from the northeast.

HIGHLANDS—2:48 P. M.—The wind has increased now about five miles an hour. Shamrock appears to have overtaken and passed Columbia. Both yachts have gone about on starboard tack. Very hazy off toward boats.

CHALLENGER IN THE LEAD.

2:49 P. M.—Shamrock seems to have a lead over Columbia as seen when they went about on port tack.

COLUMBIA STRIKES HER GAIT.

HIGHLANDS—2:50 P. M.—The Shamrock has caught the Shamrock and is getting out by her starboard side. She seems to be going like an express train.

The fleet of excursion steamers, that started with Columbia's starting were moved off shore by the Shamrock and are now following the challenger and gaining at every dip of her nose.

SHAMROCK LIES DEAD.

It made the lead more than half a mile in a short time, but then her spinaker seemed to set badly. She carried it a few minutes longer and while it was flying, she had gained a lead of about a mile, and while the Shamrock was making up her lost ground, being not more than one-third of a mile astern. They rounded the mark as follows:

plaudits of the multitude by lifting his hands.

What an ovation!

TREMENDOUS DEMONSTRATION.

From end to end the avenue rang with cheering voices, and ranks of humanity, men and women, old and young, stood by the roadside, waving flags and handkerchiefs were waved madly.

Following the Admiral came the officers and men of his ship, the Olympia, in double ranks, stretching across the avenue, and their distinguished officers of the ship, in full uniform, and many of them were waving flags and handkerchiefs.

"LONG."

"MANILA, May 1, 1899.—Secretary of the Navy, Washington: The squadron arrived at Manila at daybreak this morning, and opened fire on the Spanish fleet and destroyed the following vessels:

"The squadron is uninjured. Few men were slightly wounded. DEWEY."

"May 4.—Secretary of the Navy, Washington: I have taken position of the superb sword voted by Congress to the admiral, and accompanied by their staffs, mounted and accompanied by their staffs, and GOVERNORS' DIVISION.

At their head rode Governor Edward C. Smith of Vermont, the native State of the admiral, with a numerous staff, fully uniformed. Then came Governor Wolcott of Maine, Governor Atkinson of New Hampshire, Governor Powers of Massachusetts, Governor Anderson of Connecticut, Governor of Virginia, Governor Pinckney of Michigan, and Governor Lowndes of Maryland, each with his staff.

Following the admiral came the Olympia, the flagship of the admiral, and the admiral's staff.

Still another brilliant division was formed by the Governor of State mounted and accompanied by their staffs.

"Dewey."

"May 5.—Secretary of the Navy, Washington: The President has sent word to me that the sword voted by Congress to the admiral has been delivered to him.

"I am sending it to the admiral, and I hope he will accept it with pleasure."

PRESIDENT WHEELER'S GRAND RECEPTION.

New Leader Makes a Fine Address to the Students of the State University.

Sixteen hundred students male and female, the faculty of the University of California and hundreds of friends of both gathered around the immense flagstaff in front of the Bacon Library on the Campus of the University this morning and gave a royal welcome to Benjamin Ide Wheeler, the new president of the University.

The day was in many respects a model one. There was not a cloud to flick the sky and the sun shone with a warmth which enabled the ladies of the party to appear in the daintiness of summer costumes.

The exercises began shortly before 2 o'clock. The first battalion of the University Cadets comprising Companies A, B, E, and F, under the command of Major Moulthrop, took a position between the flag-staff and Library forming an L. The second battalion, under the command of Major Robinson, composed of Companies C, D, G, and H, effected a similar move on the north side of the pole. The two battalions were under the general command of Prof. Frank Soule, the commandant of cadets.

Behind the dark blue ranks of the courageous soldiers were ranged male and female students of the institution, and a few of the young gentlemen in banded plugs took up an easy reclining posture on the ground.

The exercises of the day were under the direction of First Lieutenant F. G. Dowdy, president of the Associated Students.

President Wheeler approached the platform from the southwest corner of the enclosure.

The students were informed of the presentation by Mr. Dowdy. At a signal from Mr. Dowdy the students broke into the long, loud yell of Cornell University, the institution from which President Wheeler has come to California:

"Yell! yell! yell! yell!"

Three was this repeated, and when the last notes had died away President Wheeler and Professor Bernard Moses were found with hands uncovered on the temporary platform erected for them beside the flagpole.

Three cheers were then given for President Wheeler, and when that gentleman had taken his seat a hearty clapping of hands came from all parts of the enclosure. Addressing the president, Professor Moses said:

"Mr. President—It gives me great pleasure in behalf of the University to extend to you a hearty welcome to our grounds and to present to you the body of students. They are California's most exclusive product. They are not transient guests. They are the members of home, of this State, and are to remain within it to carry to completion the social structure whose foundations are already laid."

"It gives me great pleasure to present to you, students of this University, Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, the new president."

Three cheers were then given with a will when President Wheeler spoke.

PRESIDENT WHEELER.

"Students of the University of California," he said, "I regard this my first introduction to you, as a moment of the greatest interest. This far the University of California has been too much in the field of imagination. I have known of it in the form of statutes and reports, forms and observances. I have seen its admirable Board of Regents. I have seen buildings and structures standing in this golden sunlight under the sun of the tropic tropic. I look into the faces of the Blue and Gold that constitutes the real University of California. From this time, I know, I am a member of the living association of men. There is nothing to me in an institution of this kind, but an association of men and women. As long as I have been in this business I have been interested only in an organization of human beings. It would be painful if my work here was popular for the study of human affairs. It is the belief of all who are am going to pursue this course that gives me most pleasure, for all the work of a president's office is a burden and a care and must be done so that the real thing may be rendered. Name this building in a university made up of students who are men and women in the truest sense of the word."

"I want you to believe that I am personal friend to you, are you come to see me. I want you to tell me what name when you meet me. I may be lost when you are and what you have done, and I shall remember nearly all of it—but I may forget your name. If your name is Smith (daughter) please tell me your name."

"There are many things I am moved to say on this occasion. This is a stimulating sight. This sunlight which comes streaming down through a suggestion of haze reminds me of my beloved Greece. It is more to me, though, than Helas. Greece looks out over the world, but this University looks out through Gold-on-Gold to the Orient where that building has a meaning to all of us and to all the country.

"I want to speak about one thing, and I shall do that in a few moments. It is not now the day. A university is not a place in which you come as empty as buckets to be filled and to pump something into it over on the side. People are going to pump something into you to be sure, but you are going to pump it out again. It is what goes into the funeral of W. P. Melvin.

Many Floral Tributes Were Sent by Friends.

The funeral of William P. Melvin took place at two o'clock this afternoon from his late residence, the homestead of W. C. Mason, No. 395 East Fourteenth street. There was a very large attendance, many public officials and members of the family and employees of the Mountain View Cemetery Association and of other business establishments with which the deceased had been connected.

The services were conducted by the Rev. E. R. Dill, who was most impressive. The music was rendered by a quartet, the place of Al. Harry Melvin being taken by Mr. Clement Rowlands.

The other voices were Benjamin Clark, first tenor; Alfred Wilkie, second tenor; and George McCorleton, second bass.

The pall-bearers were John Wilson, Harry Keeler, E. F. Lund, E. F. Vanden Cook, E. M. Hall, Jr., Dr. G. F. Shuey.

The interment was in Mountain View

WILD RUMORS FROM NATAL.

Stories of a Boer Attack That Have No Foundation in Fact.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A dispatch from Durban, Natal, announces that the Boers are expected to take the aggressive today. The most alarming rumors are afoot there respecting their intentions.

STATION UNCHANGED.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—While all dispatches from South Africa dwell upon the condition of wild excitement there and the expected imminence of a Boer attack, there is in reality little change in the situation, although the massing of the Boers in all directions increases the tension.

ENGLAND MOVES SLOWLY.

While constant military orders are being issued here, nothing seems very slow and it must be weeks before Great Britain will be in a position to strike, although it is believed the British troops now at the front, or near it, are sufficient to repel British territory.

The movement is evidently not showing any signs of haste in sending an ultimatum. This is probably due to a recollection that Great Britain is not ready to substitute force for negotiation and the Cabinet prefers to give the Transvaal every chance to accept the latest proposal.

DR. CROWLEY RETURNS.

Dr. D. D. Crowley and Mrs. Crowley returned today from a trip through Southern California. Dr. Crowley attended a meeting of the State Board of Health in Los Angeles.

Hospital Cases.

J. Sturtivant, a carpenter employed at the Vetch planing mill, had the ends of his fingers cut off this morning by being caught in a circular saw. His injuries were treated at the Receiving Hospital by Steward Borchart.

Thomas Tate, aged 74 years, residing at 315 Market street, came to the hospital to have a tooth extracted.

The President handed the Admiral the the Secretary of the Navy be and he is hereby authorized to present a sword of honor to Commodore George Dewey and to cause to be struck bronze medals commemorating the battle of Manila bay, and to distribute such medals to the officers and men of the Asiatic squadron of the United States under the command of Commodore George Dewey on May 1, 1898, and to enable the Secretary to carry out this resolution, that sum of ten thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated.

"Approved June 3, 1898.
"It was by the said act enacted, approved by the President, that the people of the United States made provision for putting in material form one expression of their appreciation of your valor as an officer of the navy and of your achievement as their representative in opening the door to a new era in the civilization of the Far East.

DEWEY'S ACHIEVEMENTS.

"The victory at Manila bay gave you the sword with the most distinguished naval hero of all times. On this was your merit achieved in a battle fought with the most gallantry and skill, waged without error, and crowned with overwhelming success; it was still more in the nerve with which you sailed from Hongkong to Manila, and in the courtesy for which you were received by the people of the Philippines.

"The band played "The Star Spangled Banner" and then Carter Gibbons pronounced the benediction. Then there was the bugle call and conclusion as the cermenutes closed and the the crowd rearranged itself, a broad path was cleared across the plaza and Admiral Dewey stood up beside the President to review the troops.

ADMIRAL ESCORTED HOME.

At the conclusion of this parade Admiral Dewey was escorted by the civil committee to the residence of Mrs. McLean.

After Admiral Dewey and the President had left the stand there was loud cheering by the crowd for Schley, and in response that officer stepped to the vacant stand and bowed repeatedly to the people.

A MAGNIFICENT SWORD.

The sword except its scabbard and the body metal of its scabbard, is entirely of karak gold. On the pommel is carried the emblem of the battleship Olympia, which was Dewey's flagship at Manila, and the zodiacal sign for December, which lucky month Dewey was born.

Below these is a closely woven wreath of oak leaves, which is worn by the admiral.

Below these the pommel is embraced by a gold collar, on the front of which are the arms of the United States with the motto "E Pluribus Unum" and the shield of the nation.

On the back of the collar is the motto "Freedom and Unity" and the colors of the shield in enamel. The plain part of the gold collar is decorated with stars, and the gold finish is given to it by a narrow band of oak leaves.

The sword blade is damascened with the inscription:

"The gift of the nation to Rear Admiral George Dewey, U. S. N."

The sword grip is covered with fine sharkskin, bound with gold wire and lined with gold stars.

The guard is an eagle terminating in a claw which grasps the top on which the blade is set, the shield of the admiral, which is formed of a steel damascened with gold, with sprays of a delicate sea plant, the Ross Marlin, typical of fidelity, constancy and remembrance.

These sprays are interlaced with oak leaves, and cover the hilt and the scabbard.

The sword box is of white oak, inlaid with black velvet, and the center of the cover is a gold emblem and inscribed with a single star and the words "Rear Admiral George Dewey, U. S. N."

WILL GREET THE MONTANAS.

The Montana soldiers will be banqueted in Oakland. The invitation will be extended to the regiment today.

A large number of entertainments in response to a call by John Mitchell, who is chairman of the committee which arranged for the sham battle and was for the purpose of considering the advisability of inviting the Montana men to come to Oakland. Those who accepted the invitation were W. R. Thomas, F. D. Purcell, Fred Sinclair, John Mitchell, A. E. Bread, Craigie Sharp, Frank K. Mott, John A. Leonard, Captain C. K. King, J. P. W. Schut, and M. M. Mitchell, all originally from Montana, organized as secretary, and no time was lost in deciding to have the celebration, and that being disposed of Chairman Mitchell appointed sub-committees and a transport committee:

Trade and Transportation — W. R. Thomas, R. M. Wadsworth, F. K. Mott, F. M. Purcell, Dr. E. J. Leonard.

Entertainment (Literary) — P. M. Fletcher, Mollie E. Cohens and Mayor R. Snow.

Refreshments — Fred Sinclair and J. F. Williams.

Services — John A. Britton, John Mitchell and A. H. Breed.

No definite time was fixed for the demonstration, though it is thought it will be impossible to complete arrangements so late as Tuesday, but the date of the celebration will be further discussed when the general committee meets this evening to hear the report of the Transportation Committee.

The services were conducted by the Rev. E. R. Dill, who was most impressive.

The music was rendered by a quartet, the place of Al. Harry Melvin being taken by Mr. Clement Rowlands.

The result of the second race was as follows:

Time, first at 2 to 2.

Ravensherd second at 2 to 2.

Jack McCabe third at 2½ to 1.

Negligence second at 4 to 1.

Major Cook third at 12 to 1.

Time, 1:15.

LEGAL FIGHT FOR CARTER.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—A representative of the law firm of Kellogg, Rose & Smith has filed a complaint against Captain B. K. Roberts, Commandant of Governors Island, commanding that Captain Oberlin Carter be produced in court before Judge LaCombe of the United States Circuit Court at 11 o'clock a. m. tomorrow.

"It is good fortune, under the terms of the enactment of Congress to have the honor of presenting to you this case," says the lawyer, "which I trust will be young, and useful service to your country. It should remain sealed in peace, as God grant it may, that fact will perhaps be due more to anything else to the thoroughness with which you have prepared for it, than to the skill of the lawyer who has been engaged in this case."

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

DES MOINES, Oct. 3.—Fire today destroyed the five story department store of the Barnes-Emery Company, and company house, and Emery-Tate store and Hill's shoe store, the total loss amounting to $50,000. The loss to the Barnes-Emery Company alone is estimated at $35,000. All the buildings were insured.

The origin of the fire is unknown.

Contest.

BERKELEY, Oct. 3.—It is now open war between Marshal Lloyd and the saloonkeepers. Almost every saloon is trying business despite the fact that the marshal's orders are officially engaged in securing orders for the wholesale arrests which are liable to be made at any time. Yesterday a number of the saloon men on the Marshal offered the license money for the new quarter. The marshal has advised the Marshal that his power to issue licenses has expired so the money was refused. Those who called were: Fred Munday, H. B. Burns, Henry Osterman and Alex. Blumberg, Chris. A SUCCESSFUL FAIR — The entertainment and dance at Laurel Lodge, A. C. U. W. in Sistern hall Saturday night was well attended. The committee of arrangements consisted of Mrs. C. D. Maloney, Mrs. L. Brodt, Mrs. C. Hadlen, Mrs. C. Brown, George H. Phillips and Thomas Dowd.

ENDEAVOR OFFICERS — The new officers of the North Berkeley Congregational Church were installed Sunday evening as follows: President, Dr. W. C. Rockwood; Vice-president, Miss LuLu Scott; secretary, Miss May Lee; treasurer, Richard McCarty. Committee chairmen—Lookout, Miss Madeline Christy; prayer meeting, Miss Alice Elsie Springer; social, Miss Cecilia Lovell; evangelistic, Mr. Wm. H. Hart; entertainment, Catherine Foster; literature, Harry Miller; missionary, Miss Marden; junior superintendent, Mrs. James Lee.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION — Justice Edgar yesterday dismissed the cases of Mrs. Silvershield, J. Doran and Charles Smith, charged with selling liquor without a license. The text of the decision is as follows:

"These defendants were charged with violating ordinance No. 73, which said ordinance licensed the sale of liquor in the town of Berkeley. On the day set for trial of the cases, as well as the day upon which defendants were arraigned, an ordinance was passed by the Board of Supervisors, which prohibited the sale of liquor in said town, and also expressly repealing said ordinance No. 73, to take effect October 1, 1898. A continuance of the cases was granted for the purpose that the ends of justice would not be subordinated by proceeding and the time of jurors would be unnecessarily consumed, for if a conviction were obtained no punishment could be meted out or inflicted under the decision of the court. Subsequently, Dr. Edgar, of San Jose, county of Modoc, Cal., p. 363, which says: 'Where a fine was imposed upon a person accused of violating a municipal ordinance and pending an appeal from the judgment to the Superior Court, the municipal ordinance was repealed by the court, and the imposition of the penalty for the offense and of the fine imposed for its violation, and such fine cannot be enforced by execution, notwithstanding an affirmance of the Superior Court after the repeat of the ordinance.' Ordinance No. 73 being repealed the cases must fall, and they are hereby dismissed."

GOLDIER BOYS HONORED.

The regular members of the Goldier Club and Willard Club, who returned recently from the Philippines which was held Saturday night was largely attended. P. J. Crosby, the speaker of the evening was introduced by George Oakes. Mr. Crosby made a very effective speech. The boys were highly complimented by the boys had endeared them. They had participated in nineteen battles besides being present at the downfall of Manila. In every place they had reflected honor on Hayward and their townsmen are proud of them. Mr. Crosby was well applauded.

The affair closed with a dance. The committee of arrangements consisted of P. Zambresky, Frank Rose and Oscar Walpert.

TUESDAY..... OCTOBER 3, 1899.

For a little man Dewey is about the biggest of his size on the top of the "footstool" just now.

During McKinley's administration the exports of the United States have averaged $20,000,000 a month, against an average of $27,000,000 a month during Cleveland's incumbency. Argument is unnecessary.

How is it that we hear no more about that $40,000 balance in the celebration fund across the bay? The people should see to it that the lime light is kept turned on the sack until it is disposed of to their entire satisfaction.

If those Alaskan volcanoes that have been belching forth fire and warming things up generally in that part of the world during the summer months will but continue their operations throughout the winter, no complaints will be lodged against them. For nature to provide a few big bonfires during the below-zero months would indeed be acceptable to the chilled miners.

At the rate things are running now in Cuba it will not take us long to get back in hard cash what it cost us to obtain control of the island. The export trade for the year will reach a total of nearly $20,000,000, about two-thirds of which is with the United States. The difference between an intelligent, progressive government and the tyrannical, money-squeezing system pursued by Spain does not take long to make itself felt.

The supremacy of the Associated Press as a news-gatherer is notably shown again today in the reports of the great yacht race. The news was furnished to the Pacific Coast so rapidly and so completely that we were kept in actual touch with the contest and THE TRIBUNE takes occasion to once more remind its readers that it is the only newspaper in Alameda county possessing the news franchise of the great organization.

Whatever may be the exact legal status of the rights of Oakland to enforce police protection at the broad gauge mole, such a procedure should be continued if possible, for there is no part of the city where the services of officers can at times accomplish more good for our citizens. We don't want any sanctuary there for offenders, as would otherwise be the case for the railroad employees who are sworn in as Deputy Sheriffs have other duties to attend to besides policing a crowd and keeping a watch for crooks and pickpockets.

THE END IS COMING.

The efforts of the insurgents in the Philippines to treat with General Otis as terms of peace furnishes all the proof necessary that the end of our troubles there is not far away. The news of the mighty army that is to march upon him, and the determination of the United States not to rest until the rebel flag is trailed in the dust, has undoubtedly become known to Aguinaldo and has scared him worse even than any of the engagements in which our troops have driven his men before them.

Aguinaldo is no fool. He has received a liberal education, has traveled considerably and is well aware of the fact that if the United States has made up its mind to crush him there can be no doubt as to the result. With the object, therefore, of making his downfall as light as possible, he is now seeking to lay down his arms under some sort of agreement that will obtain for him personal immunity and perhaps even some slight recognition, and the fact that two sets of envoys have been sent to General Otis' camp shows his eagerness to wave the olive branch.

Our campaign in the Philippines can therefore well be said to be in a better condition than it has been at any time during the past eighteen months. With a well-organized, well-equipped army pouring into the islands to reinforce General Otis' column, with the rainy season nearly ended, thereby permitting our advance to be resumed, and with the insurgents begging for peace, it is hard to see how the conditions could be better from our standpoint. The issue never was in doubt, outside of the question of how long it would take to determine it, and even that phase of it is evidently about to be settled now.

TURNING OVER A NEW LEAF.
President Wheeler's assumption of his duties as head of the State University marks the inauguration of a new era in the life of that institution for he takes up the reins determined to leave nothing undone that can aid in making it as noted a center of learning as any in the country. The broad-minded, intelligent policy he intends to pursue is clearly set forth in an interview given by him to the press, and if he adheres closely to the lines he has laid down, as he undoubtedly will do, California will indeed have good reason to be thankful that the State was enabled to enlist his services.

Primarily he treats the question of finance and renews the oft-advanced claim that in order for the University to thrive in the manner it should an increased income is necessary. Touching upon the suggestion of the charging of tuition fees, he dismisses it by saying that California is not fit for such a system, though he points out that if it were the financial burdens could be carried in that manner without difficulty. In this connection, though, it may be said that the more President Wheeler investigates that feature of our University life the more satisfied he will become that tuition charges would work great damage here. To impose such a penalty for the privilege of taking the higher educational courses would mean the shutting out of a large element of ambitious, talented but poor young men who under the present arrangement work their way through college literally by the sweat of their brow, for during the period of their residence at Berkeley they support themselves by wood-cutting, window-cleaning and, in fact, any and all vocations that can be pursued during the hours not demanded by their studies.

A scarcity of cowhides is reported. It cannot be any too scarce for the individual who knows that there is an angry woman waiting for him with one, as was the case in Oakland the other day.

Eight best sugar factories are at present in full blast in California. By the way, that is one industry that has to be crushed in order to get any good out of it.

There is a world of good sense in President Wheeler's declarations as to his intention to strengthen the faculty in every way possible, for that, after all, is where the real work must be done. Our colleagues are as intelligent and as capable as any in the country, and the measure of their success, therefore, depends upon the system and nature of their studies. President Wheeler does not propose to go about this reform in a radical manner by lopping off heads here and there, but, as he sagely says, whenever opportunities for changes occur he will see to it that the vacancies are filled by the best talent that can be obtained, not only in this country but even from Europe. His ideas about implanting a thorough commercial education in the minds of those being fitted for business life will certainly appeal very forcibly to those interested in that branch of the University work and there cannot be general approval of his avowed intention to encourage athletics in every way possible, on the theory of "A sound mind in a sound body."

The only actual objection raised by the new president to our present system is as regards the accrediting of students from certain recognized schools, and it must be admitted that good grounds for criticism exist on those lines. If a pupil is competent to enter the University by reason of his having received certain training in an approved manner, there should be no objection to proving his competency by means of an examination. Furthermore, an examination is a beneficial factor during the period of instruction, because in preparing for it the student is compelled to review the entire work he has accomplished in the past, thus keeping his memory refreshed and giving him the full advantage of his studies. There will probably be many violent objections to doing away with the accredited system, especially from the schools that have held up the possession of such privileges as one of the great advantages of their institutions, but the issue is at least one that deserves the fullest discussion, and under President Wheeler's management there is little doubt that it will have to be fairly and squarely met.

The announcement that Dewey contemplates a trip West during the next few months should be followed by sending him a pressing invitation to visit California. We have a good argument on the proposition that is bound to appeal to him and that is that we were deprived of the honor of being the first to welcome him, on account of his change of plans as to his route home. Furthermore, as Admiral of the American navy, it is his duty to have a practical acquaintance with the bay of San Francisco, representing, as it does, the most prominent defenses upon the Pacific Coast, in addition to which it is the chief port of entry for the Oriental trade that he made possible by his victory in the Philippines.

Editor McPherson of the Santa Cruz Sentinel expresses surprise because at THURSDAY'S entertainment to its carriers the other day only 150 boys were present, and says that he had an idea that fully 400 or 500 boys were required to handle our circulation. An Oakland boy counts for five Santa Cruz lads, though, Mac, and that is where the difference comes in.

Fresno has inaugurated another crusade against the nickel-in-the-slot machines. Every time they have a streak of success, they have a streak of bad luck with the game down that way they want to close it up, but you couldn't tear it away from them while they are winning.

The Olympic Club of San Francisco has about decided to remove its athletic park to this side of the bay, and will locate it along the line of the Oakland estuary. One more tribute to the unequalled advantages of Alameda county, though some people will perhaps be unkind enough to say that they are simply making short of it.

A scarcity of cowhides is reported. It cannot be any too scarce for the individual who knows that there is an angry woman waiting for him with one, as was the case in Oakland the other day.

Judge Hall has modified the decree by which George C. Everett was required to pay his divorced wife $1 a month alimony. The matter came up yesterday afternoon on a petition of Everett.

Everett, a retired Janitor, was who was sitting in the lobby to go down to the police station in the basement of the building and bring up an officer.

On grasping the situation, Ward said that Everett was a simpleton and after two attempts succeeded in locating Police Brown, who came up on the double quick and took a position inside the railing. But by this time the verdict was rendered and no one was watching him passed and no one was taking him into custody.

City Attorney Taylor's written opinion on the claim of A. V. Fisher, formerly collector for the municipal electric light works against the city of Alameda, was filed yesterday. The City Attorney held that Fisher's claim for $75 salary for the month of last July, although Fisher had worked but three days that month, was a legal claim and should stand.

Other news—Mackie would like to know on what grounds the City Attorney bases that opinion?

City Attorney Taylor said the City Clerk read the reasons from which it alibi was based and that he had no objection to the action of the City Clerk.

In modifying the decree so that Everett will not be required to pay further alimony, Judge Hall said that the judgment of the court was evident to him to give Everett $1 a month.

He admitted that she was 50 years old.

The couple were divorced a little over a year ago. At that time Everett was working for a living, having found a job in his home. He was examined by Dr. Lumay Commission but was discharged.

In modifying the decree so that Everett will not be required to pay further alimony, Judge Hall said that the judgment of the court was evident to him to give Everett $1 a month.

Everett is a simpleton and the City Attorney's opinion, made the removal of Fisher illegal.

Mr. Fisher's case was referred to the City Attorney's office.

The only actual objection raised by the new president to our present system is as regards the accrediting of students from certain recognized schools, and it must be admitted that good grounds for criticism exist on those lines. If a pupil is competent to enter the University by reason of his having received certain studies in an approved manner, there should be no objection to proving his competency by means of an examination.

Furthermore, an examination is a beneficial factor during the period of instruction, because in preparing for it the student is compelled to review the entire work he has accomplished in the past, thus keeping his memory refreshed and giving him the full advantage of his studies. There will probably be many violent objections to doing away with the accredited system, especially from the schools that have held up the possession of such privileges as one of the great advantages of their institutions, but the issue is at least one that deserves the fullest discussion, and under President Wheeler's management there is little doubt that it will have to be fairly and squarely met.

The announcement that Dewey contemplates a trip West during the next few months should be followed by sending him a pressing invitation to visit California. We have a good argument on the proposition that is bound to appeal to him, and that is that we were deprived of the honor of being the first to welcome him, on account of his change of plans as to his route home. Furthermore, as Admiral of the American navy, it is his duty to have a practical acquaintance with the bay of San Francisco, representing, as it does, the most prominent defenses upon the Pacific Coast, in addition to which it is the chief port of entry for the Oriental trade that he made possible by his victory in the Philippines.

Editor McPherson of the Santa Cruz Sentinel expresses surprise because at THE TRIBUNE'S entertainment to its curriers the other day only 150 boys were present, and says that he had an idea that fully 400 or 500 boys were required to handle our circulation. An Oakland boy counts five Santa Cruz lads, though, Mac, and that is where the difference comes in.

WORK DONE BY THE WOMEN.

Reports Made at Last Meeting of the Club.

The objects and aims of the Social Settlement in Oakland and elsewhere occupied the attention of the Oakland Club at its last meeting. The discussion was opened by Miss Mary Alexander, chairman of the department in the following words: "I prepared my paper on the subject in Los Angeles, setting forth the actual results and the value of the kindergarten as a formative of character and an educational factor."

Miss Alexander said: In January, 1894, the Los Angeles Branch of the Association of Social Settlements began the club work that, in accordance with their hopes, has grown into a settlement. For this reason the name of college settlement clings to it, in spite of explanation.

"The work began in one room but very soon required a house of three rooms. A year and a half later an adobe house of seven rooms gave better accommodations, but it could not be sold, so the money could be secured that made residence possible. An up-town house of sixteen rooms was moved into our neighborhood and though the arrangement of the house and its exact location left much to be desired, it was deemed best to take the house."

"Our housekeeper is a lady who is thoroughly interested in the work. She and the district nurse comprise the permanent residents. Others have been in residence for periods varying from a few days to nearly a year."

"Finances have not permitted the engagement of a head worker. Thanks to the telephone and to the devotion of some of our members, it has been possible to do without the services of a head-worker, but we realize that the work has been crippled in consequence."

"Our district is known as Sonora-ton, the Los Angeles of long ago. This place, and the Diaz church, are the boundary of our district. Then comes the old business part of town, then the new part, still within walking distance from our house."

"The majority of the people in this district are Americans, there are many Italians and a few French and Assyrians. Quite a number of Germans and 'American' young men come to the weekly social evening, from a distance of 100 miles. The club at present has three sewing clubs, a Little Homekeepers' Club, a young men's political club, a boys' club that is growing into a young men's club, and a club for boys of fifteen or thereabouts. A club for younger boys and a cooking class for girls are among the plans for the coming season. A kindergarten teacher boards in the home."

Mrs. McClellan followed with the following commendation of the social settlement work, which she sees how to live by becoming one of them—to get in the same environment, to face their problems, etc., are the aims of this form of philanthropy."

The speaker carefully reviewed the work done by other large cities, the result of which she sees how to live by becoming one of them—to get in the same environment, to face their problems, etc., are the aims of this form of philanthropy."

Mrs. McClellan, Mrs. H. C. Smith and Mrs. Watt spoke for the Oakland Settlement.

The good work done here, has already been mentioned, but a personal visit would awaken much greater enthusiasm.

Mrs. Emma Shafter Howes will address the audience, both on the International Council of Women, next Wednesday at 4 P. M. The meeting will be held at the corner of Thirteenth and Jefferson streets. A general invitation is extended to all.

WHAT THE CALL SAYS.

A fine public library building cannot be erected in the air. The accomplishment of a site upon which to use Mr. Carnegie's gift should not be the privilege of a few wealthy men. A free library is every body's concern, and it would seem but reasonable that everybody should help in obtaining it. Those men who have already promised large sums are not the men who use such a library. Dr. Parker does not need a free library, neither does Senator Portia, nor Congressman Scott, nor the Rev. Dr. W. H. Dinsmore. This does not appear yet that the proper method has been taken to arouse public interest in this matter. The school girl who unselfishly sent $1 to the library trustees, will purchase a book in my opinion, sold the suggestion. Every boy or girl who gives half a dollar or less to such a fund feels greater interest in the project than if he or she did not. There are probably 15,000 people living in the city who would willingly use this fine library. Each of these people have only to give $1 to secure the needed amount, as the other half required will undoubtedly be subscribed by people who will give to such an enterprise from the dictates of public spirit and not because of any personal benefit.

If a big meeting were held at the Tabernacle and merchants, officers, dealers, manufacturers, politicians, and everybody who can read, were invited and induced to attend, it does not seem at all unreasonable that a comparatively small amount would be pledged in a couple of hours. It does not seem that it can be done by a few hundred selected meetings in the Council chamber. A meeting of this nature worked up to some enthusiasm by such men as have been mentioned, with a few more of the nature of F. P. Isenberg, Dr. R. E. Goyet, and a little well-timed music from a capable band will do wonders. A few people who will never be induced to give a cent to the individual beseechings of a committee man, would undoubtedly shout out their names for moderate amounts.

AMBUSHED BY THE FILIPINOS.

A Stubborn Fight at Bacoor in Which Two Americans Are Killed.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says:

The insurrection cut the telegraph line between Bacoor and Manila at 8 o'clock tonight, and this message to Manila had to be sent by water.

The rebels made an attack upon Bacoor at 8:30 o'clock this morning and the fight lasted until dark. General Grant directed the operations of the American forces in person on the firing line.

The Filipinos first cut the telegraph wires running from Bacoor to Imus and ambushed an American party consisting of eight men. A single Sergeant was killed and two other Americans were wounded.

The little band was reinforced by a company of the Fourteenth Infantry and their companies of the Fourth, which were hurried sent out from Imus and fought their way through along the road to the relief.

The rebels were fighting at 4 o'clock this afternoon from across a deep water fifty yards wide. The men of the American troops had been wounded up to that time and two had been killed. An advance will be made tomorrow on the insurgents.

General Alvarado, the head of the Philipino military commission now conferring with General Otis, said in an interview with the Herald correspondent:

"Our government is willing to accept a protectorate under the United States. We do not want to be colonized. A colonial government under American rule would be worse than the Spanish, because you know nothing about the way to govern colonies. We do not wish to be exper-

SANDERS IS STILL FIGHTING.

He Wants Permission to Complete His Building.

Dr. Ambrose Sanders appeared before the City Council last evening to explain why his petition should not be granted improving a building on Franklin between Alvarado and Franklin streets. He said that he did not see why the Council should make fish or one and fowl of another. He said that several other persons had been granted permission to erect corrugated iron buildings in the city. If the Council would grant him a permit to do so, he would like to construct his building of iron or sheeting or anything else that would not be objectionable.

"We want an honorable peace, but we will fight until death for our institutions. We know every military move you make and get every day the local American newspapers say."

"We know what the United States papers say. We believe that a few men whom you call politicians are waging this war, and that the people of the United States will change soon in our favor."

"Admiral Dewey has told us that he would like to have the command of the war ship the Philippines would be given their independence. Dewey was our best friend, but we understand now that he will not be permitted to keep his word with us."

"We do not understand why General Otis refuses to recognize our government, unless he is afraid the other foreign powers will then recognize us."

"I am an hour's interview with the commissioners they gave me evidence of their purpose to make efforts to secure recognition as a nation before making any attempts at treating for peace."

"They also showed much depression over the complete failure of our negotiations with American troops to gain full recognition of the fact that if the campaign against them is prosecuted vigorously it must mean their utter defeat soon."

Mr. Upton said he was opposed to granting Dr. Sanders' petition because he was convinced that the donor had not acted in good faith in the matter. It seemed to him that he had tried to seal a march by creating the new roof before the defect was detected.

Mr. Taylor did not think any exceptions should be made. The letter of the fire ordinance should be filed up to the Board of Fire Commissioners.

Immediately afterwards a petition was read from Dr. George C. Pardee, requesting more changes in the rules of his residence.

A motion to that effect was carried by a following vote: Ayres-Cuvelier, Girard, Meese, Mott, Schaffer, Stetson and Chairman Rowe; Noes-Barstow, Taylor, Kramm and Upson.

Immediately afterwards a petition was read from Dr. George C. Pardee, requesting more changes in the rules of his residence.

Mr. Barstow arose to say that he wished to make no distinction between different persons. He therefore was in favor of treating the petition in the same manner as that of Dr. Pardee.

It was explained to Mr. Barstow that the repairs were of a necessary nature.

The petition was then granted, although Mr. Cuvelier had previously suggested that the matter should first be considered by the Committee of the Whole.

The rules were suspended and the ordinance was passed to print.

Mr. Cuvelier followed this up by the introduction of the following ordinance:

"An ordinance authorizing and directing the Board of Public Works to advertise for bids and enter into a contract or contracts, for the construction of one or more pumps, the capacity of the wells located upon certain property of William Roberts, which property is particularly described in that certain agreement between William Roberts and T. A. Downing dated August 25, 1892, and filed in the office of the Alameda County Recorder's office of Alameda county."

The question of a salt water plant was introduced in the following resolution by Mr. Cuvelier:

"Be it ordained that it is the determination of the City Council to include in any bond issuing proposition which may be submitted to the people during the present administration a provision for the issuance of $60,000 worth of bonds to be used in the construction of a municipal salt water pumping and distributing plant according to the plans and specifications already prepared and submitted by Superintendent of Streets M. K. Miller, in compliance with the request of this Council as expressed in resolution No. 26,347."

The resolution was referred to the Committee of the Whole.
